

MEET THE TEACHER

MS. ARONOW

ABOUT ME:

Hello my name is Danielle Aronow and I have been running a standards based, hands on art program here at PS 220 for the last 25 years. My hope has always been to instill a love of art and all things creative in my students. By introducing them to different techniques and mediums, students will explore their individual artistic voice and begin to understand the importance of self expression.