

P.S.220 The Edward Mandel School

February 4th is World Read Aloud Day (WRAD)

A global celebration of storytelling and literacy. This year marks 16 incredible years of World Read Aloud Day, and we invite you to join us as a WRADvocate!

Calling all parents, family members, and friends to connects with us for World Read Aloud Day. We want you to sparks imagination, inspires creativity, and opens the door for children to dream big. By participating, you help amplify the message that every child deserves the gift of stories.

Please sign up to read to your child's class or donate your reading time to another class

The times and grades are on the google form if you would like to participate
