About Me

Welcome to 5th grade! I love being a teacher and getting to know all of the new personalities. A couple of things to know about me- I love having good conversations and love to laugh as long as everyone can handle themselves. In my free time I travel, enjoy trying new activities, and love eating delicious food! I am looking forward to having a great year!

Fun Facts

- * I am learning Spanish.
- * I love to travel and experience other cultures.
- * I grew up in a big family with many pets and lots of shenanigans.
